

New Covenant Alliance Church

NCAC will be a church that goes into the community, and helps people enter the Kingdom of God.

Welcome to New Covenant Alliance Church! We are happy to see you and glad that you have chosen to worship God with us. If you require any assistance, please ask. We would be happy to take care of you. We love to stay connected with each other. After the service we have snacks and refreshments and we welcome you to join us in the Fellowship Hall. Please fill out an information card. Attached with it is more information about NCAC. We would like to listen and pray with you as well. Just let us know how we can help.

Change the World through Praise and Prayer

Reflection:

The Lord watches over you— the Lord is your shade at your right hand; the sun will not harm you by day, nor the moon by night. The Lord will keep you from all harm— he will watch over your life; the Lord will watch over your coming and going both now and forevermore (Psalm 121:5-8)

Prayer Items - Focus on Pastoral Search:

- For wisdom and patience during the search process
- That God will unite the members of the search committee in a meaningful and effective way to search for a candidate that is a good fit with our church
- That God is already preparing the heart of the candidate he has in mind and that he will bring this person to our church when in his time
- For our congregation to be ready to accept the person that God leads to our church
- That God will strengthen and unite our church and its people during this time

Other Prayer Items:

- We completed 9 Alpha lessons. Praise God for leading participants and brothers/sisters to learn and serve together! Please pray for preparation and invitation of Alpha celebration and graduation ceremony which shares amazing grace of God on Alpha course.

Please pray.....

- Jonathan, the young American who was found beaten up on the beach, was released from the hospital and is awaiting a court date for charges related to his incident. Please continue to pray that he will be completely healed. He and his girlfriend will come to know the Lord, and that the legal issues will be resolved so he can go home.
- Pray for Judith as she flies back to Australia to be with her daughter-in-law this week. She struggles with her own physical illness that makes walking difficult.
- Pray that Derek, Darren & Cathy will ask the right questions as they interview the brothers & sisters in Chiangmai, and for wisdom to know what the next steps are for the Herbolds and for Cathy. Pray also for safety as they travel.

Justice and Compassion: Putting Our Faith in Action
November 16th, 2014

We are a community of people who desire to express Christ's love for one another. By love we mean acceptance and belonging in a community that fosters an environment of growth and maturation, to enable its people to make a positive difference in the world around us. To become such a community, we pray together and care for one another (caring), we learn together (discipleship), share our lives (fellowship), offer ourselves (worship), and advocate the gospel (evangelism). NCAC will be a church where the community comes to worship God and fulfills the commission of Jesus Christ.

1. Commit to a Small Group. A small group is not just another thing to do each week, nor is it a social gathering. Rather, it is a community of people who are committed to Jesus and to being vulnerable with each other. It is a band of people desiring to grow in their faith, learning to love the Word and wanting to share their faith with others. If this sounds like something you are interested in, we have three small groups: downtown, midtown and uptown.

2. Join us for lunch. Food was an important part of community building in the Bible. People gathered together and celebrated and feasted. Community is important to us. Therefore we love food! Each small group will meet over coffee and snacks, and maybe even go out for lunch after Sunday Service. Join us as we enjoy food and each other.
