

AN ENCOURAGEMENT FOR

YOU

Reflection for the Week and Prayer

Read: Hebrew 10:24-25

And let us consider how we may spur one another toward love and good deeds, not giving up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but encouraging one another—and all the more as you see the Day approaching.

Reflect:

Why are we called to encourage?

Pray for:

- our church members be connected with a small group
- the leadership and guidance of our small group leaders
- small groups to be a place for growth, accountability and Christian fellowship.

A FEW THINGS TO KNOW

Our Daily Bread

"Our Daily Bread", a devotional booklet for the next quarter is available at the lobby.

Sunday School on Small Groups

Small groups create a context for Christians to live out their faith in real life. To encourage everyone to be connected and to grow spiritually, starting this Sunday, special sessions on "Discipleship in Small Group" are offered after worship service and snack fellowship time. Please join our guest speaker Rev

Paul Lam, Church Life and Leadership Associate on May 12, 19 and 26.

Chinese Pre-Father's Day Gospel Sunday

Will be held on June 9 at church at 11:15 am. Guest speaker Rev James Pang will be bringing a gospel message about Father's love (三位父親), to be followed by Hospitality Lunch which is complimentary for first-time visitors, guests, friends and children aged under 3. Lunch fee for adults is $6 and children aged 6-12 is $3. Please take this great opportunity to invite your Cantonese-speaking guests to attend.

Lunch registration starts on May 19 at foyer desk after Chinese Sunday Service. For registration or inquiry please contact Sarina Cheung. Please share your guest names and we will pray with you for them.

Welcome to NCAC! We are so glad that you are able to join us today for our Sunday service. We believe that the Christian faith is about responding to God's invitation to be in a relationship with Him – this relationship changes everything.

Fellowship, or building relationships with each other, is another important aspect of Christianity. And so, we would love to connect with you beyond our service time. There are a few ways to do that:

Fill out a welcome card

These are located in the pew in front of you. You can then place it in the offering bag that will be passed during service. There, you can leave us your contact information, comments, or questions. We will be sure to reach out to you!

Join a small group

A small group is more than just a social gathering. Rather, it is a community of people who are committed to Jesus and to being vulnerable with each other. It is for anyone who has a desire to grow in their faith, who wants to love and learn Scripture, and who wants to share their faith with others. If this sounds like something you are interested in, talk to the small group leaders. They would love to hear from you! Their contact information can be found in this bulletin.

Join us for food, coffee, and conversation

Food was an important part of community-building in the Bible. People gathered together, celebrated and feasted. Similarly, community is important to us and we invite you to join us in the fellowship hall after service. Please come and sit in on a small group as we eat, drink, and continue the conversation that today's service started.
